

Lakshmi Williams joined Transurban in 2012 and is General Counsel, North America. Ms. Williams is responsible for managing all of the legal work related to the company's operating assets, as well all of the company's development efforts. In addition to legal responsibilities, she is manages the risk and compliance functions for the North American business. Ms. Williams brings extensive experience to the role gained in a legal career which spans over 20 years. Prior to joining Transurban, Ms. Williams worked as Deputy General Counsel at GridPoint, an energy tech company, as well as Deputy Counsel at MicroStrategy, a public software company. Prior to practicing in-house, Ms. Williams started her career as an associate at a few large Washington, D.C. law firms, including Hogan Lovells (formerly Hogan & Hartson).

Ms. Williams received a Juris Doctorate from University of Chicago and a Bachelor of Arts degree from Rice University.

Ms. Williams lives in Arlington, Virginia with her husband and two children.